Concierge:	Welcome to the Grand Hotel. Let me help you with your luggage. Are you going to check-in?
Guest:	Yes. Thank you. And I was informed that I could ask you about places around the city.
Concierge:	Of course! That is my job as a concierge we are here to help you find places to visit such as restaurants, museums, shopping areas or anywhere you want to go.
Guest:	Can you please recommend a restaurant within the area for dinner?
Concierge:	What kind of cuisine are you looking for? How much are you willing to spend?
Guest:	Since I am here in Japan, so I would like to try Japanese food but nothing too expensive please.
Concierge:	If you are looking for something local and affordable, there's a ramen restaurant at the corner of the street. They serve noodles and gyoza.
	If you want to eat sushi, then I suggest you try Nemuro Hanamaru. It's a sushi restaurant. It's moderately priced around Y500 to Y700 per person.
Guest:	That sounds perfect! Can you reserve a seat for 2 people?
Concierge:	Unfortunately, they do not accept reservations. They implement a first come, first serve policy. I suggest for you to be there at least 30 to 40 minutes before dinner time as you need to queue.
Guest:	Thank you so much for giving me a heads up!
Concierge:	You're going to have a great time!

Practice 2: CONVERSATION ON CHECKING OUT GUEST

Receptionist: Have you brought your luggage already? How was your stay? Yes, we did. It was great! We enjoyed using your swimming pool and gym best. It's good to hear that. Can you please give us a minute to have your room checked? You can have a sit and we'll call you once we're done. Guest: Sure. * Receptionist: Ms. Williams, your room has already been cleared. Would need you mind going to the front desk again to sign a form as well as settle the bill? Guest: Okay. No problem. Can I pay using cash? Do you accept US dollars? Receptionist: Yes, of course. The current exchange rate is ¥107 to $1. The total in USD is $115.34. Please sign this form and as for your total bill for your two-night stay is ¥12,342. That already includes the service charge and accommodation tax. Guest: Okay. Here's $200. Receptionist: Here's your change ma'am. Are you heading to the airport? Guest: Yes, we are. We are planning to take the free airport shuttle. What time will be the next one? Receptionist: The next airport shuttle will be leaving at 13:30. I'll inform the concierge that you are planning to join it so they can inform you once it is here.
