Card 1: Conversation Model

A

Student A: Hey, Mark, which place for a trip do you think is better, Disneyland or a hot spring?

Student B: Disneyland or a hot spring? That's a difficult question. If you ask me, Disneyland is better because it's more exciting.

Student A: Really? It's so crowded.

Student B: That's true, but I like it anyway.

Student A: Well, I don't really agree with you.

B

Student A: Hey, Mark, which souvenir for my dad do you think is better, an Aloha shirt or coffee beans?

Student B: An Aloha shirt or coffee beans? That's a difficult question. If you ask me, An Aloha shirt is better because it's memorable.

Student A: Really? It's so loud.

Student B: That's true, but I think Aloha shirts look really cool.

Student A: Well, I don't really agree with you.

C

Student A: Hey, Mark, which place to live do you think is better, the city or the country?

Student B: The city or the country? That's a difficult question. If you ask me, the city is better because it's more convenient.

Student A: Really? It's so costly.

Student B: That's true, but I think the countryside is less exciting.

Student A: Well, I don't really agree with you.
