Key Questions / Words / Phrases	Warm up by having small talks about free time activities. Practice questions on P.67 (C). Be sure to use some expressions from P.66. Practice model conversation on P.69. (A)/(B) P.71 Speaking A. Talk about favorite places to go with friends.
Special Note	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be aware of turn-taking issue. Please kindly give each student equal amount of time if possible.</li> <li>• Encourage your students to talk more by giving them simple closed-ended questions. For high-level students, open-ended questions will be fine.</li> <li>• Start from something simple, but gradually challenge them with follow-up questions. For example. What is your major? --&gt;Why did you choose this major?</li> <li>• If you ask the same question by rephrasing it too much, you may confuse your students even more. Sometimes giving them sample answers is the best approach.</li> <li>• Assess student's level, and please talk slowly when necessary.</li> <li>• Avoid using difficult words if their level is low. Also try not to explain complicated word definition.</li> <li>• Make sure your students ask you questions too!</li> <li>• Please avoid too much correction of grammar mistakes. If the sentence is comprehensible, then let the conversation flow.</li> </ul>
