➤ Greetings [5 min.]

➤ Conversation Practice at a restaurant: [10 min.] :

Showing the pdf “Order” on the next page, practice conversation with a student. You can play the role of a staff or a customer. It seems the customer role is easier for the students.

*Notice: A few more orders will be shown to you at the beginning of the class through the Zoom chat.

Model Conversation

DON'T SHOW THIS MODEL TO THE STUDENTS.

Staff Can I take your order?

Customer Yes, please. I'd like the tomato pasta.

Staff Certainly. Would you like anything to drink?

Customer Yes. Could I have a hot coffee, please?

Staff Would you like anything for dessert?

Customer I'll have the cheesecake, please.

Staff Is that everything?

Customer I'd like the salad.

Staff Anything else?

Customer That's all. Thanks.

Staff So, that's the tomato pasta, a hot coffee, the cheesecake and the salad.

Customer That's right.

Customer Excuse me. There's a spider in my salad.

Staff I'm so sorry. I'll change it immediately

➤ Conversation: Introducing the dishes the Philippines [15 min]

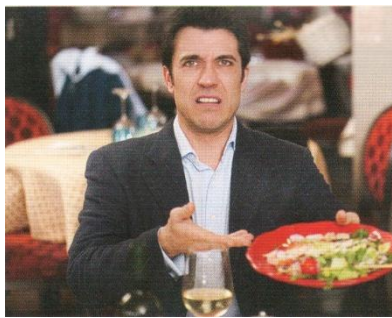

Showing the pdf “Dishes in the Philippines” on the last page, please talk about a few dishes in the Philippines.

Example of the explanation:

Lechon is a whole pig roasted over a fire. The skin is hard and crispy, and the meat is soft. It is often served at big celebrations or special events, such as festivals.
